CMA CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Our appreciation goes out to all parishioners at St. Vivian who have made a gift to the 2010 Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you have not yet made your gift, please consider making a pledge this weekend. We ask every Catholic household to participate. Every gift matters. You can pick up a pledge packet from the poster display in the back of the church. Please return your completed pledge/gift through the mail in the envelope provided in the information packet. For more information please visit CatholicAppeal.info. Thank you!

Chrism Mass

Join Archbishop Dennis Schnurr, the priests, and faithful of the archdiocese for the annual Chrism Mass on Tuesday, March 30 at 7:00 pm at St. Peter in Chains Cathedral. In this Mass, the Oils of the Sick, Catechumens, and the Sacred Chrism are blessed for use throughout the year in celebrating the sacraments. This liturgy is also a time for priests to renew their vows, and for the faithful to support them in their ministry. All are welcome for this important liturgy of Holy Week.

Census Time!

Just like the federal government, we are also taking a census here in the parish. If you didn't get a chance to update your census card this weekend, you will be given another opportunity on the weekends of April 10/11 and 17/18 in the Gather Room. Please make the job a lot easier for our own census workers by updating your family information. Don't be left uncounted!

Eucharistic Adoration for April

Due to the first Thursday of the month falling on Holy Thursday, we will not be having our monthly Eucharistic Adoration during the day. The Mass of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated that evening at 7:30 pm, with Adoration continuing until 11:00 pm.

Food Outreach for Lent

We will deliver the donations this Sunday, March 28 after the 11:00 am Mass. If you would like to help with deliver or have questions, please call Barb at 641-1702.

Parish Twinning

Thanks to your generous contributions to the parish twinning collection, St. Vivian raised $650 to be divided between St. Maria Goretti and His Hands 2 Go in New Orleans. We have recently received thank you letters from both organizations. Monsignor Gauthreaux writes, "Thanks for all your continuing help to the people of N.O. and our parish." And Suzanne at HH2G notes, "Thanks so much for the donation! It's folks like you who keep this ministry alive. We are looking forward to seeing your summer crew again in a few months." Please consider joining our next mission trip to visit our friends in New Orleans, which will be July 17-24. For more information, contact Jeanne at 728-4332.

Vocation View: Surrender your life to God. You are promised eternal life.

Quote-N-Tote

Check your attic. Check your basement. Check your garage. There are treasures there, we are sure, and St. Vivian Festival goers will pay big bucks for them. Please consider donating to the Festival's Quote-n-Tote (formerly Bid-n-Buy) booth. Remember, because everything is donated, there are absolutely no expenses involved with this booth. That means 100% profit. Feel free to drop your donations to the parish office during business hours, or bring items to mass the weekend of April 10 & 11. Smiling volunteers (a.k.a. Mary Kent at 521-3056 or Gail Kelly at 226-4296) will be on hand to accept your donations.

Class Reunion

St. Vivian Class of 1965 reunion plans are in the works on July 17 beginning at 4:30 Mass followed by dinner and an evening of fellowship. Please send all inquiries to Jim Meyer at jim.meyer.stv65@gmail.com. We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Way of the Cross/Way of Justice

On Good Friday, April 2, from Noon to 1:30 pm, area churches, schools, social service organizations, and peace and justice groups will gather together for a prayer service that connects the suffering Jesus endured to the suffering that occurs today locally, nationally, and globally. All are welcome. The prayer service takes place in Fountain Square and will conclude with a procession to the Freedom Center. For more information, contact the Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center at 579-8547.

The Cleaning Lady

During my second month of nursing school, our professor gave us a pop quiz. I was a conscientious student and had breezed through the questions, until I read the last one: "What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?" Surely this was some kind of joke. I had seen the cleaning woman several times. She was tall, dark-haired and in her 50's, but how would I know her name? I handed in my paper, leaving the last question blank. Before class ended, one student asked if the last question would count toward our quiz grade. "Absolutely," said the professor. "In your careers you will meet many people. All are significant. They deserve your attention and care, even if all you do is smile and say 'Hello'." I've never forgotten that lesson. I also learned her name was Dorothy.
