Our Sympathy

Ricardo Adto, father of Wevena Frentsos; Joseph Craycroft, husband of the late Mary Helen; and Ruth Feldhaus, wife of Omer. Please keep them and their families in your prayers.

Many thanks to the households who have participated in the 2010 Catholic Ministries Appeal. As we celebrate the gift of the Spirit, may we all have the courage to make a substantial pledge so that many in our Archdiocese will be served in the Lord's name. God calls us to share what we have to help others. If you have not yet made your gift, please do so this weekend. For more information, please visit CatholicAppeal.info.

Catholic Relief Services Collection

Next week, our parish will take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. This Collection helps to fund six Catholic organizations that improve the quality of life and protect human dignity. Your gift will support agricultural development to strengthen economies and create food sustainability, provide outreach services to survivors of human trafficking, and supply pastoral care and advocacy for immigrants and refugees. By helping the marginalized and impoverished, you give hope to Jesus in disguise. Please be charitable in next week's Catholic Relief Services Collection. Envelopes are in your packet, and will also be available in the pews for your convenience.

Vocation View: Are you like Thomas? Do you need to see to believe? Pray for faith and trust.

Census Time!

We would like to thank the 234 families out of 903 who have responded to our census request so far. If you didn't get a chance to update your census card, you will be given another opportunity this weekend, April 10/11 and next weekend, April 17/18 in the Gather Room. Please make the job a lot easier for our own census workers by updating your family information. You can also visit the parish office during regular business hours to update your census form.

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11

Pope John Paul II has declared Divine Mercy Sunday a feast in the universal Church which he enriched with a plenary indulgence "to ensure that the faithful would observe this day with intense devotion." Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a special day when "all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened." (Diary 699) Join us for the outpouring of God's mercy on April 11 at 2:00 pm at St. Vivian with our guest speaker, the warm and spirited Fr. Jim Shappelle. We will have the Rosary, confessions with Fr. Joel Bryne, OFM from 2:00 to 3:30 pm, and with Fr. Patrick Welsh from 2:30 to 3:30 pm, followed by the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and closing with Benediction.

Catholic Telegraph

Baby Boomers and others may remember the Charlie Brown Specials where Lucy was the psychiatrist. It only cost a nickel back then. The Catholic Telegraph isn't Lucy, but you can turn to the newspaper and gain free advice. The Catholic Church has 2,000 years of tradition and our basics are simply the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Take time to read a passage, and the miracle continues of how the past has so much influence today. The Archdiocese of Cincinnati is alive with stories of faith, hope, and love each and every day. Celebrate those stories by subscribing to your Archdiocesan newspaper. The Catholic Telegraph is a great learning tool and has been for over 175 years. Support your parish's Adult Faith Formation program with The Catholic Telegraph. The cost is less than 50 cents each week. You'll get 51 issues for just $24. Order your subscription today by using the envelope in your April-June packet. Your subscription will begin in July.
